

BUILD YOUR WORKFORCE WITH THE TRANSITIONAL EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

Looking for a way to bring new talent into your business while helping someone gain valuable work experience?

The Transitional Employment Program connects eligible individuals with local employers for short-term, paid work experiences designed to build skills and create a pathway to long-term employment.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Up to 100% wage reimbursement may be available
 - Build and develop your future workforce
 - Give individuals hands-on experience and an opportunity to succeed
 - Receive support from the Kentucky Career Center throughout the process
 - No displacement of current employees

The goal isn't just to provide a temporary job—it's to create a pathway to unsubsidized, long-term employment.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF PARTICIPATING EMPLOYERS?

- 1. Provide meaningful work experience
- 2. Provide a safe, non-discriminatory work environment
- 3. Track time and attendance
- 4. Provide an evaluation at the end of the work experience
- 5. Limit work to 40 hours per week with no overtime

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A WORKSITE?

Contact your local Kentucky Career Center – TENCO to learn more about eligibility and how your business can participate. The program process includes meeting with a Career Counselor, completing eligibility and assessment, and being matched with a worksite.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- This is not an entitlement program
- Participation is based on eligibility & assessment
- Designed to lead to unsubsidized employment
